IAS Accreditation Number: MSCB-154

Director

TNV System Certification Pvt. Ltd.

Dear Pragyesh Singh,

We are providing the following information regarding International Accreditation Service (IAS) and the accreditation of the above named organization as a Management System Certification Body (MSCB).

IAS is based in Brea, California, USA. IAS is a private, nonprofit organization providing a public-benefit service to the industry, stakeholders and consumers. IAS accredits management system certification bodies, testing and calibration laboratories, inspection agencies, personnel certification bodies, and product certification agencies. The accreditation process requires applicants to demonstrate compliance with IAS accreditation criteria and the relevant international standards.

IAS maintains signatory status with the International Laboratory Accreditation Cooperation (ILAC) and the International Accreditation Forum (IAF) for accreditation of management system, testing, calibration, inspection and product certification. To verify IAS's credentials as an internationally recognized accreditation body, please visit the ILAC website at (<http://ilac.org/ilac-mra-and-signatories/>) and IAF website at (<http://www.iaf.nu/articles/...>).
